Order

On March 18, 2013, the Iowa Supreme Court issued an order setting a public hearing and reopening the comment period on proposed new rule of juvenile procedure 8.36. This rule would establish standards for practice, a minimum experience requirement, and a separate continuing legal education requirement for attorneys representing parents in juvenile court.

The public hearing will begin at 9 a.m., Tuesday, July 9, 2013. The morning portion of the hearing will be held in the supreme court courtroom, located on the 4th floor of the Judicial Branch Building, 1111 East Court Avenue, Des Moines. The morning schedule consists of oral presentations from individuals expressing different viewpoints on the proposed rule. Oral presentations are limited to 20 minutes each and are scheduled in the following order:

Sam Langholz, State Public Defender

Bethany J. Currie, Attorney, Peglow, O'Hare & See, PLC

Brent Pattison, Middleton Center for Children's Rights

Honorable John G. Mullen, retired

Marti Nerenstone, Attorney, Marti Nerenstone Law Office

Judge Susan Christensen/Judge Connie Cohen

Judge Karen Kaufman Salic

After completion of the oral presentations, the public hearing will move to the historic Supreme Court Courtroom (Room 103) at the State Capitol. At 1:30 p.m., a roundtable discussion will begin with the presenters and the court.

Copies of the proposed rule, accompanying practice standards, and public comments to the proposed rule can be found at www.iowacourts.gov/Supreme_Court/Orders/. In addition, copies are available at the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Additional resource information related to the proposed rule may be accessed at http://www.iowacourts.gov/Administration/Childrens_Justice/Childrens_Justice/Task_Forces_on_Attorney_Standards/.

Dated this 20th day of June, 2013.
